- 1      Please follow all format and guidance notes and enter complete information.
  - 2      Please do not add, hide or remove columns, cells or formulas on the spreadsheet.
  - 3      New inputs should be added at the bottom of the list - not in place of deleted inputs
  - 4      When deleting inputs just "strikethrough" the data - leave the rows/columns intact
  - 5      Please enter the Requiring Office name and code (if applicable) in Column C
  - 6      Columns D & E have character limitations. 120 for C and 150 for D. Cells which are highlighted yellow are noted for exceeding previous and current limits and will need to be revised or they risk being arbitrarily reduced.
  - 7      Acronyms should be spelled out completely the first time, unless they are (1) well known (e.g., DISA, DISN, DLA) - or (2) listed on the "Acronyms" spreadsheet already. Please add any new Acronym requests/suggestions to the
  - 8      Please check for format and spelling errors - especially WRT Company Names and Program Names which may have unique spellings not easily detected by an automated spell check.

**DISCLAIMER** United States Code Title 15, Section 637(A) (12) (C), requires the Defense Information Systems Agency (DISA) to prepare a forecast of expected contract opportunities and make the forecast available to small businesses. DISA fulfills this requirement by publishing this Long Range Forecast (LRF) on the <https://www.disa.mil/newsandevents/events/forecast-to-industry-2020> website and updating the information on a quarterly basis.

The forecast is informational only and does not constitute an offer or commitment by DISA to fund, in whole or part, the opportunities referenced herein. This listing is not all inclusive and subject to change based on market research and/or Government needs, and as the length of time to Anticipated Solicitation is into the future the more likelihood for changes. Vendors shall not contact any contracting or technical personnel regarding this forecast.

All inquiries shall be submitted to the DISA Acquisition Opportunities Mailbox: disa.meade.PLD.mbx.acquisition-opportunities-forecast@mail.mil
